

2024 Catwalk Residency Season

Catwalk Institute welcomes proposals from alumni and collaborative teams for 2–4 week residencies from May – October 2024. Please see below for available residency session dates.

Residencies are available to artists, writers and scholars in all media exploring subjects related to place, landscape and environment that are investigating universal aspects of nature embedded in the Hudson Valley landscape and ecology.

Residencies are space/time grants, including a fully outfitted kitchen, and individual and group studio spaces. Pictures of our residencies and workspaces can be found on our website: www.CatwalkInstitute.org

Submissions will include:

- cover letter including description of the work you are proposing while in residence stating how the Hudson Valley relates to your project and / or how it will enrich your artistic abilities.
- letter of reference
- resume /CV
- samples of your work (or link to your website or online publications of your work)
- your preferred top 3 residency session dates

*If you are submitting as a collaborative team, please include resumes and headshots for all members.
